tie Corbett-L. V. Bell's Alwin First by a Nose at Brighton Beach Track.

Five favorites were bowled over at Brighton Beach track yesterday afternoon in a way that made the form players scratch their heads. Horses that looked to be pounds the best in the different races ran in such poor style that their backers gave up the task a-Dale, with top weight in the handicap at nine furlows, was one of the disappointments of the day. He was supposed to be the class and on his recent work he was made favorite, though he went up to twos from 8 o 5 because of the play on Champlain and to 5 because of the play on Champlain and Wotan. But when it came to racing there was nothing to it but James R. Keene's Sinister, Martin up, who, with 6 to 1 about him, made the pace from the start and won easily by three lengths in 1.52 3-5. He was in receipt of eight pounds from Alan-a-Dale, who ran second, giving two pounds to Wotan and beating him two and a half lengths. Champlain was pocketed and shut off several times and was soundly beaten.

Mattie Corbett's imported horse, Out of Reach, a 6 to 1 shot, made a show of his company in the second race, at a mile and a six-

Mattie Corbett's imported horse. Out of Reach, a 6 to 1 shot, made a show of his company in the second race, at a mile and a sixteenth. As soon as Willie Knapp cut him loose near the far turn he went to the front with a great rush and romped home eight lengths to the good in 1:4s. Tony Aste's Hippocrates, 40 to 1, took the place from Flammula, 11 to 5, by three parts of a length, with Atwood a head out of the money. E. E. Smathers's Action, a 7 to 5 favorite, had no speed and was beaten early in the game.

Ala Russell, running in the Smathers silks and picking up top weight in the handicap for two-year-olds, six furlongs, was a lukewarm favorite at 5 to 2. But after leading for half a mile the weight toid and she backed up to third money. E. R. Bradley's Vi-O. backed down to 5 to 1, chosed in the stretch under Knapp's drive and won by a length and a half from Cassini, 5 to 1, who had two and a half lengths over the favorite. Ala Russell gavethirteen pounds to Vi-O and eleven to Cassini. Cinchona, 5 to 1, was a length out of the money. The race was run in 1:14 2-5.

H. B. Durvea's Dreamer, odds-on favorite.

out of the money. The race was run in 1:14 2-5.

H. B. Duryea's Dreamer, odds-on favorite, took the third event, for three-year-olds, six furlongs. Hildebrand took him to the front without delay, the Hamburg gelding breezing home a length and a half in front of Humo, 7 to 1. The latter caught Jerry C., 10 to 1, in the last 100 yards and beat him a length. Dreamer's time was 1:13-5.

Senator McCarren's St. Estephe, with Anderson, a Western leckey, up, was a heavily backed favorite in the in. In race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, the price falling from 5 to 2 to 8 to 5. But he broke slowly, was quickly shut off and never had a look in. Knapp, on the other hand, cut Andria, 7 to 2, loose with a dazzling turn of speed as soon as the gate went up, and won all the way, passing the judges two lengths in front of L. O. Appleby's Mary Morris, a 50 te 1 shot, with Sydney Paget's Lord Provost, 7 to 1, three lengths back and a head in front of S. S. Brown's Youth. The favorite was 3 head back. The time was 1:08.

A poor lot of maidens ran in the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth, L. V. Bell's Alwin, 10 to 1, getting up just in time to win by a nose from T. L. Watt's Lady Prudence, 3 to 1, favorite. Tony Aste's Glowstar, 20 to 1, was third. The time was 1:40, About 1:5,000 persons were in attendance. The summaries:

SPLIT IN N. Y. MOTOR CLUB. Vice-President Miles and Secretary Smith Resign.

Though it would seem that such an entirely praiseworthy and altruistic undertaking as the orphans' day parade of the New York Motor Club would promote none but the most kindly and friendly sentiments among the members of the organization, this theory has proved a mistaken one. suggestion of "Senator" W. J. Morgan that the club have an orphans' day and take the children to Coney Island did not find much favor with Charles H. Hyde, president of the organization.

The full work for the very successful orphans' day fell upon the willing and able shoulders of Vice-President S. A. Miles and Secretary Louis R. Smith, who were materially assisted by "Senator" Morgan, who is a member of the club. The trouble over the orphans' parade has been intensified by Mr. Hyde's refusal to leave his summer home in New Jersey to preside at directors' is now matched to box Sandy Ferguson in a fifteen round bout at the Douglass A. C., Chelsea, Mass., next Tuesday night.

Feter Sullivan of Fall River, Mass., met Blink McCluskev of Philadelphia at Providence, R. I., in what was to have been a fifteen round bout, but owing to an accident early in the struggle McCluskey lost in the seventh round. In this round Sullivan caught Blink a hard right uppercut to the mouth. The blow broke a gold plate on which were two false teeth and embedded the plate firmly in the roof of McCluskey's mouth. A dentist was called and removed the plate. McCluskey wanted to continue, but his seconds wouldn't let him. Therefore Sullivan was declared the winner.

ATTELL TO VISIT ENGLAND.

Crack Featherweight Says He Will Sail

This Month to Fight Bowker. Abe Attell keeps his word he will have plenty to do in a fighting way during the next six months. Yesterday Attell was at e Hotel Metropole and announced that had made up his mind to go to England and that he would sail for the other side about the latter part of this month. Attell will be accompanied by Fred Ashe, a local sportsman. Ashe says that Attell's trip will comprise visits to Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Germany and France. Attell's main purpose is to get on a bout with Joe Bowker the English bantam champion.

"I understand that he is coming to America," said Attell to The Sun reporter. "I am going to anticipate his visit and find out exactly how I stand in the way of a match. I have been trying to locate this Briton for a bout for some time, but strange to say he has so far given me the cold shoulder. But he can t crawl when I corral him on his Own ground. If Bowker refuses to do any business with me I will try and see what I can do with some of the other men in my class. There are plenty of 122 pounders in England and I guess I ought to get plenty of matches." accompanied by Fred Ashe, a local sports-

HART ANSWERS RYAN.

Agrees to Meet Middleweight Champion

at Any Time. Tommy Ryan sees, as he thinks, a chance to capture the heavyweight title and is out with a defi to meet Marvin Hart. Ryan is with a defi to meet Marvin Hart. Ryan is willing to face Hart to a finish and offers to arrange the mill at once. In reply to this Hart says:

"I do not believe that Ryan can be dragged into the ring with me. He is simply four-flushing; that's all, and simply wants to get his name in the papers. I will meet him and if I do you will see some tough going as far as I am concerned. He had a hard time in beating Tommy West in Louisville in seventeen rounds. I beat West in sixteen rounds and gave him an awful drubbing. I was an awkward fighter then, but I guess I have improved some since. I will meet Ruhlin at any time or place. He has not, as asserted by him in interviews, been begging me for a year to fight. In fact, I am ready to meet any man in the world—first come first served.

American Whist Tournament.

CHICAGO, July 14.-At this morning's session of the American whist tournament the play was made secondary to the election of officers for the coming year. These were: President, J. Eberhard Faber of New York: President, J. Eberhard Faber of New York; vice-president, Henry T. Fry, Chicago; recording secretary, E. A. Montgomery, Minneapolis; corresponding secretary, Clarence W. Vail, Brooklyn; treasurer, E. G. Comstock, Milwaukee. Five new directors were elected to serve three year terms.

In to-day's play for the associate members' trophy Mr. and Mrs. C. D. P. Hamilton were announced winners of the pair championship for the year with 107½ matches won. Miss Blackburn and E. P. Cooper ranked second, and Mr. and Mrs. Vail third.

In the play for the Minneapolis trophy, which will determine the championship for the pairs for the year, the net trick score in the first three rounds places the Cleveland pair first, Becford second and Hamilton third. ROBBINS INJURED.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH WHEN DERISION FALLS.

Colt Instantly Killed-Arbitration Com mittee of the Mets Makes a Ruling That Excites Unfa orable Comment. The Day's Operations in the Betting Ring.

What came near being a fatal accident coursed in the first race at Brighton Beach esterday. As the horses reached the first there was a jam and suddenly J. Enright's Derision, a two-year-old colt by Masetto-Ridicule, stumbled and fell. His jockey, W. Robbins, a sixteen-year-old boy, whose home is in Chicago, was thrown over the colt's head and was apparently trampled on. Derision was instantly killed, his neck being broken, while the jockey, as he lay motionless on the track, was thought Several policemen and stablemen ran to the cene of the accident, while a hurry call was sent for the track ambulance, which was waiting in the paddock for just such an emergency. Robbins was soon lifted into the wagon. He was unconscious and was bleeding from several cuts on the head. A physician quickly examined him in the jockeys' room and found that the boy's right arm and several fingers had been broken, while his shoulder had been dislocated.

Later Robbins regained consciousness and was taken to the hospital. Nobody in particular was to blame for the accident. Derision was highly thought of by Enright, his owner, who recently paid a big bunch of of $10,000 for the colt, said to have been made by Enoch Wishard, John A. Drake's trainer. The colt was surrounded by a crowd of gaping railbirds as he lay dead on the track, until several track men dragged his carcass away from public viw.

The arbitration committee of the Mets has just made a decision as to a disputed wager that has caused no end of comment. Some time ago J. S. Ullman of Jersey City, who is known in the ring as a "cinch player" because he bets on horses as far back as he can get price, wagered $1,000 with Orlando Jones on Caingorm to show. When he went to cash the bet Jones told him that he had backed the colt to win, and that as the colt did not finish first the bet had been lost. Jones backed up his statement by showing the sheet on the race, the bet being therein recorded as a straight wager. Uliman insisted that an error had been made and demanded his money. Jones turned the case over to the arbitration committee, composed of three bookmakers, all members of the Mets. After waiting several days this committee, which arbitration committee, composed of three bookmakers, all members of the Mets. After waiting several days this committee, which is naturally partizan, decided that Jones's suggestion that the bet, which was $200 to $1,000 Cairngorm to show, be cut in halves and that Uliman should receive $600. Uliman yesterday declined to accept this money and said that in all fairness he was entitled to his original wager of $1,000. Just why Jones should be allowed to keep $400 of Uliman's money when he says himself that Uliman's money when he says himself that Uliman's word is good, is puzzling man, persons who frequent the ring. Uliman, in his assertion that he nearly always plays horses to show, is backed up by a number of the leading bookmakers with whom he has had dealings. This ruling is used as a further argument that the arbitration committee should be made non-partizan, inasmuch as bookmakers cannot be expected to decide against fellow members of the profession as against the public.

The selling race war was continued yesterday. When Out of Reach won the second race, in which he was entered to be sold for only $1,000, Judge McDowell called for bids, and hearing no response he proceeded to turn the horse over to his trainer. Just then Tony Aste who was on the edge of the orphans' parade has been intensified by Mr. Hyde's refusal to leave his summer home in New Jersey to preside at directors' meetings, which reluctance to appear has also affected Hyde's friends on the board.

At a directors' meetings held Thursday might in the clubrooms at Bretton Hall Messrs Miles and Smith resigned their posts of vice-president and secretary respectively. It is quite likely that two directors, G. D. Gray and Col. K. C. Pardee, will also resign. Their exact intentions cannot be learned, as Mr. Gray is in California and Col. Pardee is one of the Glidden tourists. The club was formed last fall, with the idea of uniting those automobilists and motor boat men who do not care to join the wealthy and exclusive Automobile Club of America.

BOUTS OUT OF TOWN.

Jack Johnson Whips Two Men—McCluskey Breaks a Tooth in the Ring.

Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight of California, had a chance to demonstrate his fistic prowess at Philadelphia on Thursday night, when he met two men in one ring Johnson met Morris Harris and Black Bill, both colored, for three rounds each, taking the mon one after the other. Johnson stopped Harris in one round and allowed Black Bill to remain three rounds. Johnson could have linished Black Bill to remain three rounds. Johnson could have linished Black Bill to remain three rounds. Johnson could have him shaded by the spectators a run for their money. Johnson is now matched to box Sandy Ferguson in a fifteen round bout at the Douglass A. C., Chelsea, Mass., next Tuesday night.

Waswitt, who ran in his colors. J. Waldron went to Atwood and Tony Aste spread $500 across the boards on Hippocrates, most of it to show.

Vi-O'ssuccess in the first race cost the books a pretty penny. The filly was played from 10 to 1 down to fives, Eole Pearsall. Joe Hayman, Joe Murphy and Sol Lichtenstein cashing on her. Ala Russell burned up big money bet by Dick Brown, Joe Rose, Smathers, Wheelock, J. Folger, Hoffman, Tom Plunkett, Orlando Jones and others. Dave Gideon split $1,500 on Cinchona, who was also played by Henry Harris. Ed Stutte split a large wager on Cassini, Counselor Lichtenstein playing this colt to show. Ladsarion, who ran in August Belmont's name, was liberally played by Eddie McDonald, J. Donahue, W. Stopher and others. Charley Fox took Kercheval.

Wheelock bet $5,000 on Dreamer in the third race, with $2,000 bets made by Joe Rose, Bill Porter, Alex Shields, Fred Esher and the Lichtensteins. The clubhouse commission came in a flood at the last minute and Dreamer was backed down to 1 to 2. Eddie Burke lost $1,000 on Fleur de Marie.

Frank Farrell, Alex Shields, Counselor Lichtenstein, Charley Fox, Smith Kelme, Joe Cassidy and others bet on Champlain in the fourth race. Joe Yeager dropped $2,000 on Wotan. Alan-a-Dale was heavily supported by Eole Pearsall, Frank McDougall, P. Ray and the regulars. Sinister, the winner, had no friends among the men of wisdom.

St. Estephe was a killer for the plungers, who thought that he was in. There was one clubhouse commission of $10,000 on the McCarren two-year-old, while Wheelock burned up $3,000 on him. Max Blumenthal, William Brown, Costigan, Harry Griffin and the Lichtensteins were all aboard of this disappointing sure thing. Roach Lewis played Mary Morris, who ran second, all three ways. His bet was $1,500 to $15 to win, $450 to $15 a place and $225 to $15 to show.

Wheelock lost $2,500 more on Lady Prudence in the last race. Morris Hayman bet $1,000 on Chambia. Ed Stutte and Grant Lyman wagered liberally on Grand Duchess, J. Beck and Billy Du Boi ATHLETES ON PONY TRACK. Amateurs Provide Sport for Visitors to Dreamland.

The "Fall of the Bastile" was celebrated yesterday afternoon at Dreamland, Coney Island, by a set of athletic games under the auspices of the French Societies Fête. A program of six events attracted all the local cracks, who sweltered in the glory of the competitions. The races took place on the pony track, which was a veritable quagmire, but the athletes plowed away manfully. On a corner of the circuit, too, the weight throwers exercised their muscles with the 58 pound weight and a wild throw by John McCarthy of the Irish A. A. C. came near knocking a hole into "all creation." In the final of the 50 yard run a mad scramble ensued between Callahan. New York A. C.; Spitzer, Pastime A. C., and Mulligan of the Brooklyn A. C. The latter finished first, but was disqualified for crossing and the prize went to Callahan by a few inches the prize went to Callahan by a few inches from Spitzer. Nebrich of the New York A. C. had the post of honor in the mile, with fourteen runners in front of him having various marks. He never appeared dangerous, although he ran well and was close up at the finish. First prize was won after a good race by Haywood of New Brunswick, N. J., who had an allowance of 95 yards. From the time returned for the quarter mile there was a suspicion that the course was a little short.

The New York A. C. easily secured the point honors, with three firsts, one second and two American Tennis Players to Meet Australians in Davis Cup Final.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, July 14 .- The doubles in the first round of the international lawn tennis tournament for the Davis cup were played on the Queen's Club courts to-day and on the Queen's Club courts to-day and resulted in victories for the American and Australian teams. Holcombe Ward and Beals C. Wright of America beat Decugis and Germot of France, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2, and N. E. Brookes and A. W. Dunlop of Australia beat Von Wessely and Kinzl of Austria, 9-7, 6-2, 7-5. This result assures the meeting of the Americans and Australians in the final round, as each of them has now won a majority of the matches in the first round.

Vanderbilt Cup for Motor Boats.

Commodore W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club presented a cup to be raced for in the latter part of September. It is for motor boats driven by international combustion engines. driven by international combustion engines. The race is to be run without time allowance, on the Sound. The distance will be 100 miles, and the only restrictions are that the boats must be propelled by international combustion engines. The exact date of the race will be announced later.

Commodore Vanderbilt is having a motor boat built from designs by Clinton H. Crane which will have an imported engine. He has given Mr. Crane a free hand and wants the fastest boat that can be turned out.

Chicago Pitcher Weakens and Locals Make a Tordd Finish -Their Season Just Haif Over-Pittsburgs Win-Quakers and Cincinnatis Victorious.

The New York Nationals reached the halfway mark in their list of scheduled games yesterday and made it a victory. Yesterday's was their seventy-seventh game and also the third victory in the series of four games with the Chicagos. The Brooklyns lost three out of four to the Pittsburgs, the Philadelphias had but little trouble in worsting the Cardinals, and the Cincinnatis defeated the Bostons. Two fly balls to Slagle had disposed of as many New York batsmen in the ninth inning at the Polo Grounds yesterday, and the home team's chances of winning looked as small as a pin point through the small end of a telescope. To make matters worse the New Yorks up to that time had made only four strung out hits off of Reulbach, the Chicago pitcher. But in about two minutes the New Yorks had tied the score, cushions were raining out on the field, and the torrid were raining out on the field, and the torrid spectators were yelling and dancing up and down madly, altogether forgetful that they were making themselves still warmer. It was only another swift finish by the New Yorks, but the rooter never becomes jaded with such finishes. The spurt was kept up long enough for the New Yorks to make another run and win the game.

Devlin and Strang were the bold boys whose execution with the bat sent in the winning runs. Reulbach, after pitching splendidly up to the final stages, weakened just as he did in last Tuesday's game. He worked out his own downfall by hitting Dahlen after McGann and Mertes had flied out. Both of the fly balls were hard hit drives, and Reulbach may have seen beneath the surface and become nervous. He followed his hitting of Dahlen with a wild pitch that sent Dahlen home with a safe liner to right, and then the vocal volcano of the cranks. One overwrought citizen ran out into the diamond bareheaded and was chased off the field by O'Day. He skipped back to the New York bench and took a seat next to McGann, who also gave him his marching orders. Then the climbed back into the grandstand. For the information of those who wondered who he was and what he wanted, be it known that he wanted to make a present of $5 to Devlin, wanted a run just then more than spectators were yelling and dancing up and that he wanted to make a present of $5 to Devlin.

Devlin, wanted a run just then more than he did all the five case notes that ever came out of the Treasury, and besides the best books on etiquette do not countenance interrupting a game to bestow approval on a player, however substantial. Sammy Stranglived up to bis appreciation. brought Devlin home.

McGann and Chance made a vehement kick over a decision, McGann over a decision at first and Chance over a called ball that appeared to split the plate. McGraw slammed see any down on the ground once when a sull that looked to be over Dahlen's head as called a strike. Taylor was very effective in every inning except the second, when hit Chance on the elbow, Tinker sacrificed, ters singled and Casey tripled, two runs sulting. Dahlen doubled in the second ning, but was caught napping.

Evers singled and Casey tripled, two runs resulting. Dahlen doubled in the second inning, but was caught napping.

The New Yorks scored once in the seventh inning by good base running on the part of Donlin and McGann. Donlin drew four balls and McGann hit to left. Donlin scooted around to third, drew a throw there and beat it, and the throw enabled McGann to reach second. On a passed ball Donlin came in. McGann was on third with only one out—Mertes's line fly to Maloney—but was run down on Dahlen's grounder to Casey. The fielding on both sides was good, but the hitting was so light that there was little excitement until the closing chapters. The score:

Stricklett pitched good enough to win against the Pittsburgs yesterday, but the support he received was good enough to lose. Errors figured in a couple of Pittsburg's runs, and their margin of victory was two runs. A wild throw by Batch let in a run in the first inning, and a low throw by the same athlete gave Clarke a life in the eighth inning. The game was won and lost in the eighth.
